 - Browse the General Store housed within the Meadow Run Grist Mill ca. 1797
 - Visit The Clothier and Metal Smith Shop housed in period structures
- A great place to stop for lunch or spend the day*
Only ¼ mile from Jefferson's Monticello

Historic Michie Tavern served as the social center of its community and accommodated travelers with food, drink and lodging. Located next to Monticello, this Virginia Landmark captures 18th-century life.

The Tavern's dining room features hearty Midday Fare in a rustic tavern setting. Servers dressed in period attire are pleased to bring you seconds on colonial fried chicken, homemade biscuits, our infamous stewed tomatoes, and so much more! Many guests enjoy our buffet as their main meal of the day.

Engage the senses through a hands-on tour of the oldest section of Michie Tavern. Dance a colonial reel and play 18th-century tavern games while learning about the role of taverns and travelers centuries ago in this family-friendly experience. Shopping opportunities abound at the General Store, The Clothier, The Metal Smith and Tavern-Museum Shops, all housed in period structures.

Where southern hospitality prevails!
