Only ¼ mile from Jefferson's Monticello

Historic Michie Tavern served as the social center of its community and accommodated travelers with food, drink and lodging. Located next to Monticello, this Virginia Landmark captures 18th-century life.

Get a taste of the 18th-century as we feature a buffet of southern fried chicken, marinated baked chicken, hickory-smoked pork barbecue, stewed tomatoes, black-eyed peas, buttermilk biscuits and so much more. Servers in period attire are pleased to bring you seconds. Many guests enjoy our buffet as the main meal of the day.

The 1784 Pub, housed in the oldest section of this historic landmark, features local beers, wines and hard ciders. This 18th century setting contains period antiques, a recreated tap bar and old tavern games for your enjoyment. Light southern fare is available during late afternoons.

Shopping opportunities abound in four unique shops all housed in restored period structures.

Where southern hospitality prevails!
